Redwood Terrace News

February 2019

We've Got News!

We have a change of roles for three of our staff members to make an even better experience for everyone! Cheryl McCoy, the Activity Coordinator here for many years, has decided to step back and spend more time at home for her adventurous years. She will begin leading activities on the weekends, so that something fun will happen every day of the week.

After looking for the perfect person to take over the Activity Coordinator role, Gina Noble was chosen. Gina will provide a dynamic activity program with her talents. She has been our housekeeper extraordinaire for the past eight years, and has always gone the extra mile to make sure that all residents are comfortable and happy. She's a natural in the smile department, and loves to discover special crafts for all - a perfect fit!

That left some pretty big shoes to fill for a new housekeeper. Celeste Hultquist was selected for this position and is doing beautifully. What a fortunate set of changes.

We wish the best for everyone in their new roles!

Mystery Resident

Our February Mystery Resident was born and raised in Grants Pass. She was the middle child in a family with four sisters and one brother. Our mysterious neighbor graduated from Grants Pass High School. Later on, when she was working in a tavern, she met her husband. They married and had three sons. She enjoyed her role as full time mother, and is proud of her sons and their families. Those families have expanded, of course, and this person now has 3 grandchildren and a great granddaughter!

In younger days, the family moved to Marysville for 14 years because of her husband's job. Our heroine and most of her family live here in the Rogue valley now.

The mysterious person's husband was from Colorado, and they spent many vacations exploring the places that were important to him in that area, which our friend loved as well. She loved taking pictures of the scenery.

Another love of our mystery resident was reading. She especially enjoys books by John Grisham, and other mysteries and adventures. Over the years, our mysterious friend has developed a love of squirrels. She loves watching them, and has a growing collection of squirrel images. Can you guess who this mysteriously wonderful person is? Find out for sure in the next month's newsletter.

Valentine's Day

Every year we celebrate Valentine's Day with a very special noon dinner for our residents. This year we will be serving lobster tails and filet mignon steaks with a baked potato, broccoli, and a special dessert.

Welcome New Neighbor Kathy Smith

- Kathy Smith has deep roots in the Rogue valley. She, her father, and her grandmother were born and raised here. She has enjoyed hiking, rock climbing, and gardening.

We're so glad Kathy is here!

Here's what we made in January!
